March is Reading Month

Lots of things have been happening around Dye this month! We have been reading, reading, reading! We have had several guest speakers, lots of buddy reading, a door decorating contest, a book mark contest, so many different ways to celebrate reading! The month will wrap up on the 22nd with a read in. Also, contest winners will be announced and a school wide assembly!

Fun websites for kids in the classroom or at home

<http://www.counton.org/>

This website has a few brainteasers and an escape room. Students will have to really use some problem solving skills to win at these free games.

<https://www.mrnussbaum.com/sweet16-play/>

This is a spelling game that is probably better suited for 4th and 5th graders but it is setup as a basketball game and is a lot of fun.

<https://www.mrnussbaum.com/bdpg-bandit/>

This game is for ages 3-6 it helps with letter identification, especially practicing with confusing letters like b,d,p,q.

Junior Great Books

Junior great books will start assembling scenes for our movie this month the students in 3rd grade have chosen the story, Cinderella and 2nd grade chose the story, The Mouse and the Wizard.

March is Reading Month

Dye has several fun activities planned for March is Reading Month. We are doing a Book March Madness. Books are competing for the title of book champion. Several classes have already voted for our semifinal winners.

There is an accelerated reader competition going on amongst the classrooms as well. There will be a 2-3rd grade winner and a 4th_5th grade winner. Winning classes will earn a pizza party for their class and some free books.
